

On February 24, He Yilian, Acting Director and Deputy Consul of the Philippine Consulate General in Xiamen, accompanied by representatives of the Foreign Affairs Office of the Fujian Provincial People's Government and the Philippine Friendship Foundation, visited FNU. Vice President of FNU Chen Qinghua met with the visitors, and leaders of the Office of Party and Government Affairs, Office of International Cooperation and Exchange, Infrastructure Construction Department, International College of Chinese Studies and Soledad College attended the meeting.

On behalf of FNU, Chen Qinghua, extended a warm welcome to He Yilian and his party. Chen Qinghua introduced the educational cooperation with foreign countries in FNU, and the efforts made by FNU to overcome the impacts of the epidemic and ensure the study and life of international students. FNU will complete the supporting projects of Soledad Building to provide a better environment for international students to study and live, and strengthen cultural and educational exchanges with the Philippines.

He Yilian spoke highly of FNU's considerate care for Filipino students during the epidemic period, and hoped that Soledad College would cultivate more talents since it has become a brand of educational exchange between China and the Philippines. The Philippine Consulate in Xiamen will continue to serve as a bridge to promote the further development of China-Philippines friendship.

He Yilian also had a forum with representatives of Filipino students of Soledad College and International College of Chinese Studies, and visited Soledad Building and Soledad Memorial Hall.
